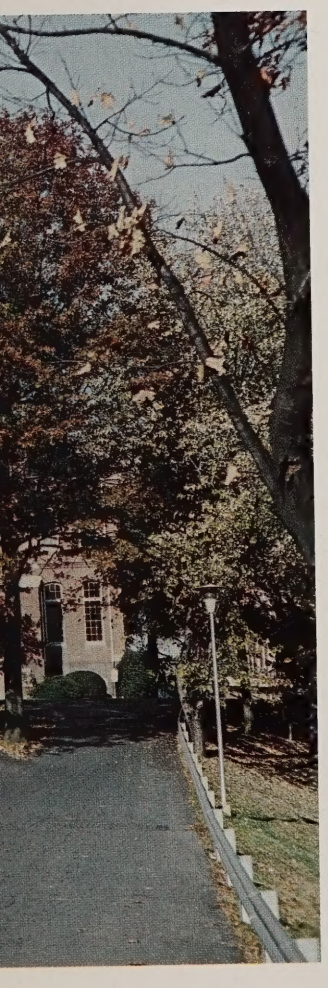
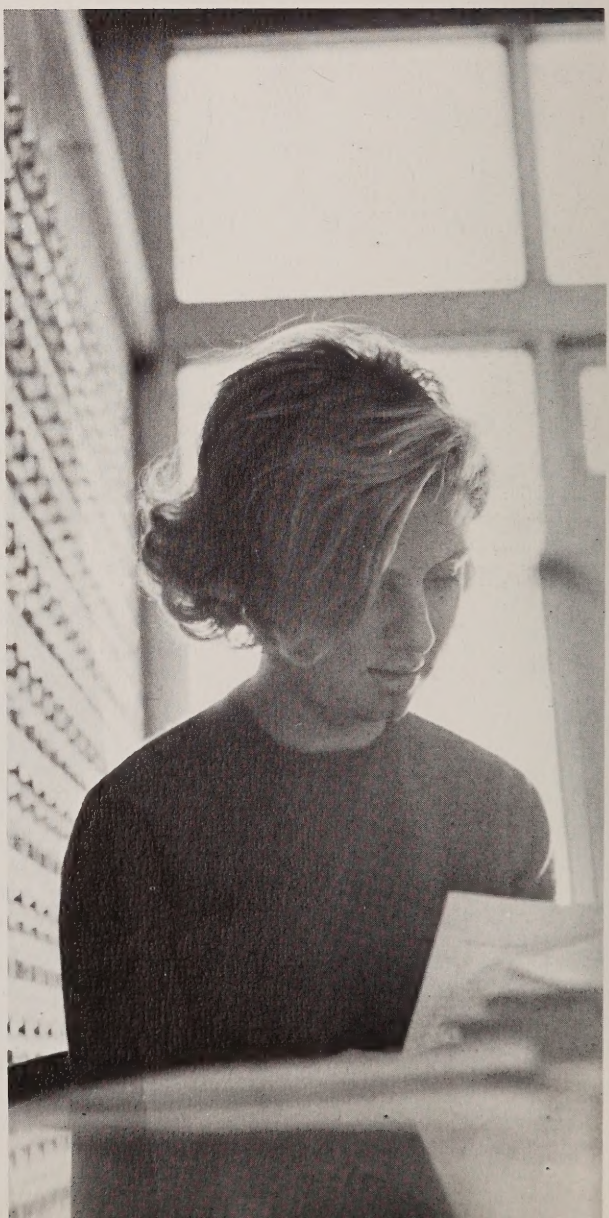
YESTERDAY. . .

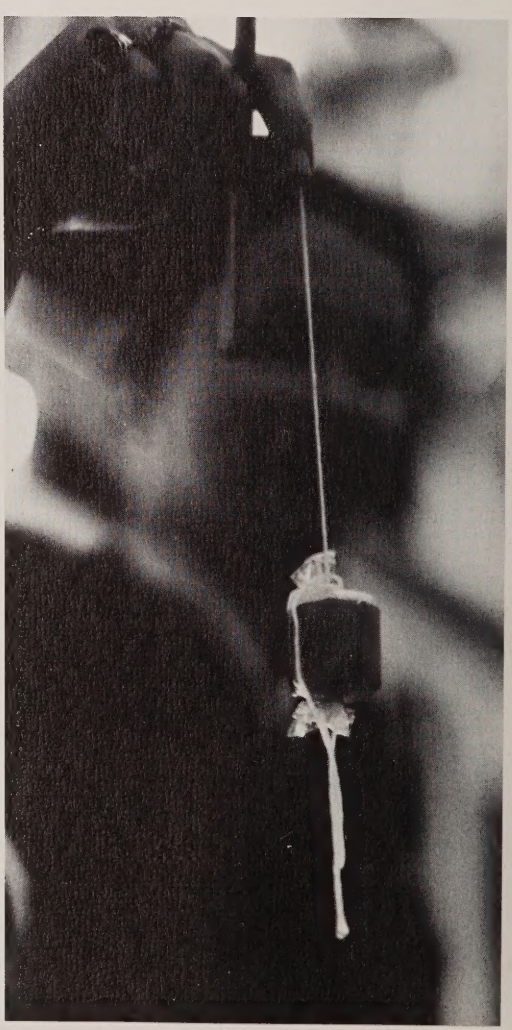
It may have seemed hours before you arrived and your college life began. With you came some care-worn possession of childhood, an image of the future; and you secretly held back the fears—maybe tears—of losing the security of home. Registration, frustration, moving in, your roommate . . . the semester's end seemed an eternity away. And then a smile—silently saying "hello," and welcome to V. I.



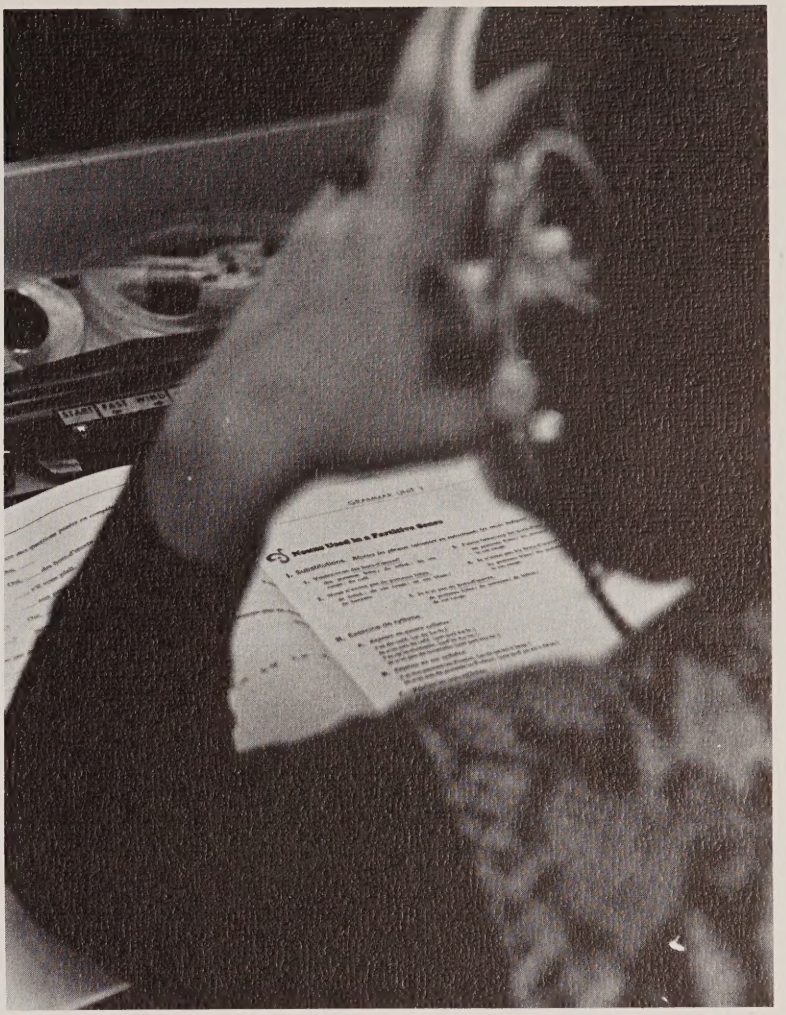
Cycles—life in every form has its cycles, and college is just one cycle in your life. In it lies a gamut of emotions: loneliness, satisfaction, depression, and ecstasy. Each day found you following this winding path . . . questioning . . . reflecting . . . and often fighting against what you think is wrong . . . trying to grasp firmly your role as a young woman.



There were others, you realized, who supported your own ideas and goals. You discovered unity that carried you through victory and defeat . . . and within this unity, friendships—each displaying talents, and each having a unique quality that distinguished one from the other.

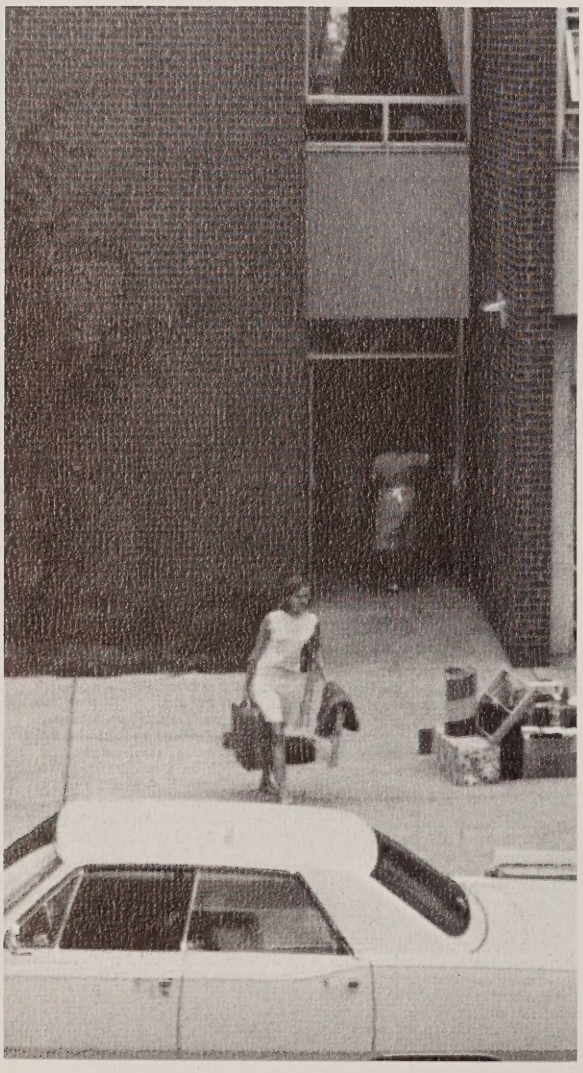


Yesterdays passed into todays as you grew in knowledge, seeking a level of supremacy that would make you a better person. You experimented and the results were sometimes astounding. You learned that wisdom gained cannot always be found in books, but often from others around you. Different opinions, viewpoints and advice taught you to live each day purposefully, spend each hour wisely.

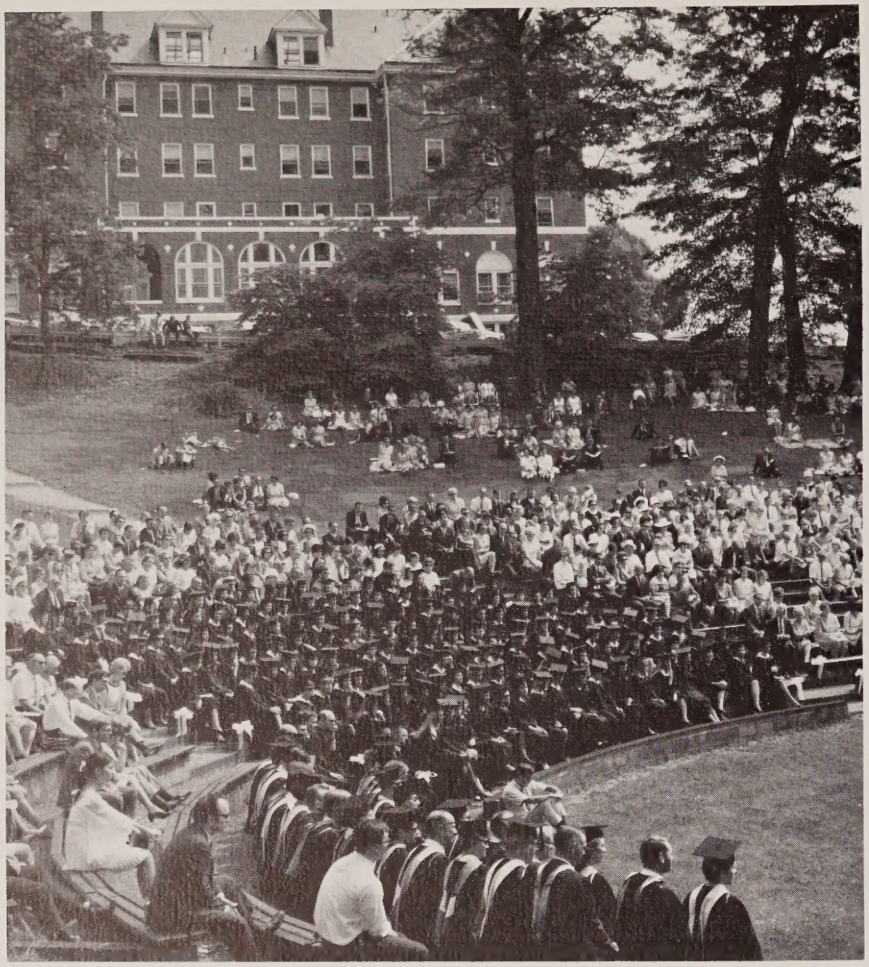


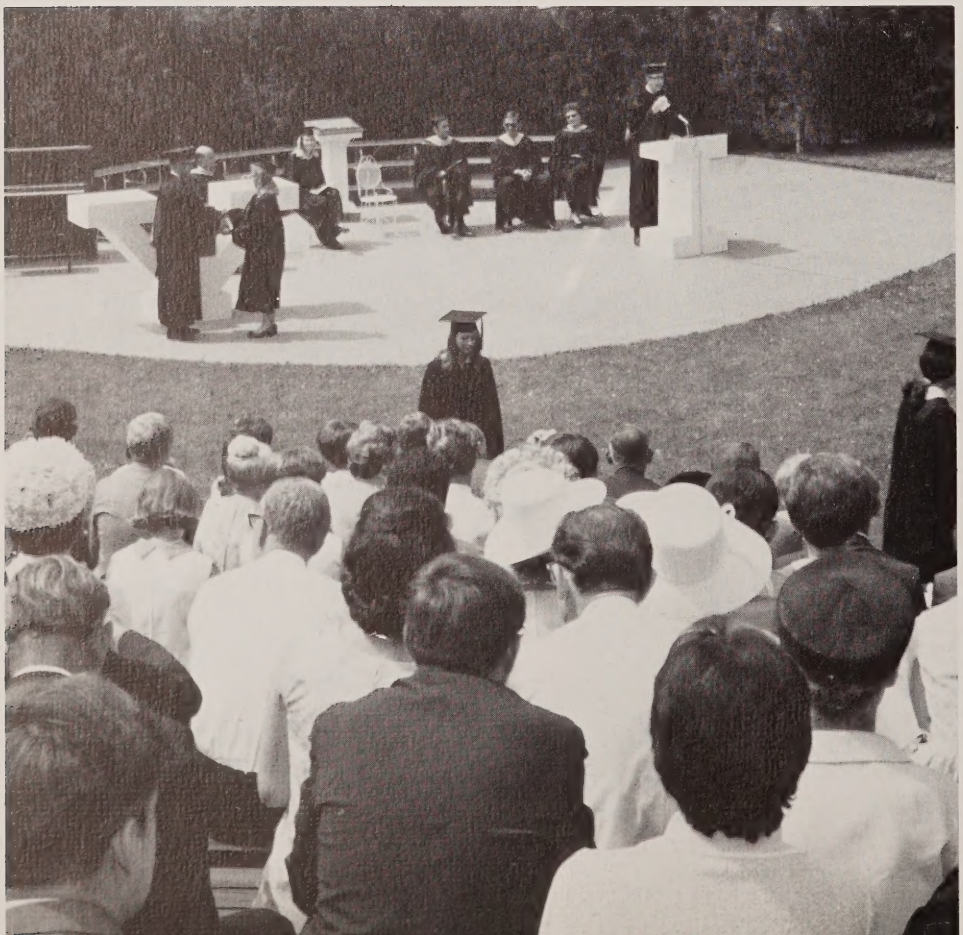
HODGES HALL

. . . And so the days passed. Many glittered with excitement, anticipation, and activity.



Stop and reflect . . . those yesterdays seem like seconds. Yes, you have come a long way. Developing those qualities that recognize honor and spirit, those friendships that have enlightened and increased your depth of understanding, were those yesterdays. As you say good-bye to those who remain, as you pack the accumulation from two years of college, you find yourself waiting in still one more patterned path . . .





Before you scatter into the world, look back on what you have acquired. So far, "Nil Sine Numine" has been the past and is still part of the present. But in it lies the future, for tomorrow is yet to come.

HUMANITIES SERIES

Outstanding guest artists and speakers have made the Humanities Series at Virginia Intermont the finest in the tri-city area. Students not only have the opportunity to listen, but also to talk informally with campus guests in a seminar following each program. On this and the following pages are just a few of the national and international personalities that have come to Virginia Intermont this year. Pictured right is Carlos Montoya, world renowned Flamenco guitarist. Below is a scene from the THE BOOK OF JOB, performed by the Everyman Players.

Lord Harlech

Sir William David Ormsby-Gore, better known as Lord Harlech, is a distinguished diplomat and expert on international affairs. The appearance of Father Ian and Caroline Mitchell brought unprecedented response from the student body. Known internationally as the originator of the Jazz, Folk, and Rock mass idiom, Father Ian and his wife have recorded many of his compositions and make frequent appearances at university and college campuses, coffee houses, and churches across the United States.

TUG OF WAR!

Every year a few weeks after "Dink Day," the freshmen and sophomore Physical Education Majors take part in a tug of war. The purpose of the battle is to determine how much longer the freshmen will wear their beanies. The contest consists of the challenge between equally matched teams, the fight each team displays, and ends up with the victors traditionally all wet.

SWIMMING AND DIVING

EQUITATION

V.I.'s Field Hockey team this year was a completely victorious one. Congratulations to the team pictured above left to right. Front row: Co-captains, Sandy Enloe, Dede Motley. Second row: Paul Ann Morrow, Nancy Eppinger, Jean Eppinger, Pam Dickson, Betty Silverthorn. Third row: Miss Gallahan, Lorraine Conklin, Molly Mangus, Lynn Smith, Karen Anderson, Kit Webb, Betsy Hodges.

CHRISTMAS QUEEN 1970

Miss Sarah Ford

Sophomore
Concord, North Carolina

Receiving roses and a kiss from Sophomore class sponsor Jim Agard, Miss Sarah Ford was named Christmas Queen 1970 at the Christmas Dance. Miss Sue Hegeman, a Freshman from Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, was named first runner-up.

GLAMOUR-BEST DRESSED COED AWARD

Participating once again in GLAMOUR magazine's "Best Dressed Coed" contest, Virginia Intermont entered Miss Suzan Pemberton as a candidate. She was selected by a panel of judges after appearing with 18 other V. I. girls competing for the title. Judging was based not only on photogenic qualities, but also on the girls' participation in campus activities, and her ability in fashion coordination. Miss Judy Roberts was first runner-up.

Twelve Virginia Intermont students are honored this year as TORCHBEARERS . 1970. Elected by the student body, the girls hold a title which has been traditionally given for more than a quarter of a century. They represent excellence in leadership, responsibility, accomplishments at Virginia Intermont, and promise of achievement in the future. Among those chosen are two class presidents, three class officers, the student body president, and several presidents of active clubs on campus.

1970 ALUMNAE AWARD

Miss Wendy Saroch

A coveted award and the highest honor a girl may receive while attending Virginia Intermont is the Alumnae Award, for this girl epitomizes the highest ideals of the college. Chosen each year by a committee of Alumnae, this girl must excel in scholarship, leadership, character, service and traditions of Virginia Intermont College through her two years at Intermont.

Miss Wendy Saroch of Annapolis, Maryland, recipient of this year's award, is truly the ideal Intermont girl. A voice major, Wendy is president of Phi Beta Music Fraternity, a member of Phi Theta Kappa National Honorary Fraternity, and was named to WHO'S WHO AMONG AMERICAN JUNIOR COLLEGES.

Deborah Austin

The Dean Marguerite Pflug
Scholarship

The Dean Marguerite Pflug Scholarship Fund was begun by the trustees in 1957 in honor of the forty-three years of service that Miss Pflug rendered to Virginia Intermont College. The recipient of this scholarship is chosen on the basis of academic achievement, leadership, and character. Miss Deborah Austin of Kingsport, Tennessee is the recipient of the 1969-1970 Dean Marguerite Pflug Scholarship. Since her enrollment at Virginia Intermont, Miss Austin has been active in several campus organizations. She served as secretary-treasurer for Phi Theta Kappa National Honorary Fraternity, was historian for Phi Beta Fraternity, a cheerleader, and a member of the Virginia Intermont Players.

Linda Worley Nelson

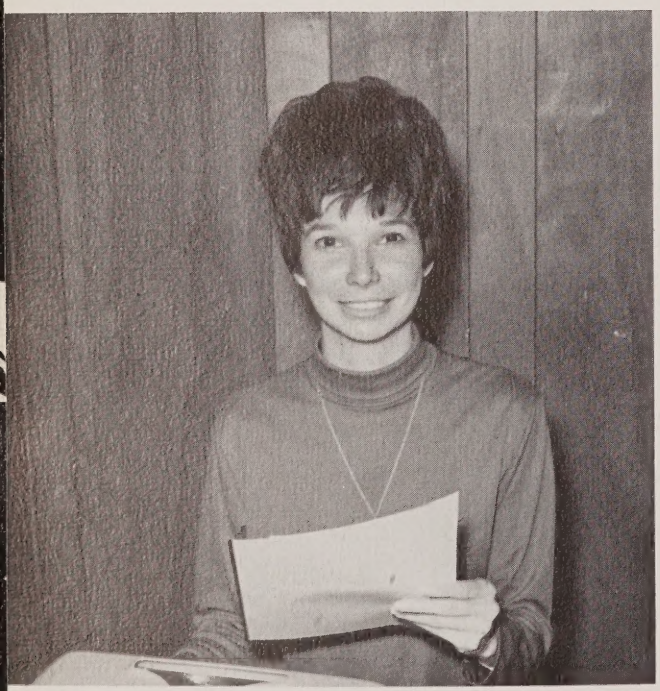
The Margaret Noffsinger
Memorial Scholarship

The Margaret Noffsinger Memorial Scholarship was started by the Virginia Intermont faculty immediately after the death of Margaret, the daughter of President and Mrs. Noffsinger, in July, 1933. The interest gained from this fund is awarded yearly to an outstanding returning freshman. The recipient for the 1969-1970 scholarship is Mrs. Linda Worley Nelson of Bristol, Tennessee. Linda was president of both Phi Theta Kappa National Honorary Fraternity and the Areannes. She was treasurer for the Nostrae Filiae Club, an active member of the Student Government Association, and was nominated as a Torchbearer for 1970.

DR. FLOYD V. TURNER
PRESIDENT

Under Dr. Floyd V. Turner's supervision, Virginia Intermont College is undergoing a new transformation in which the two-year terminal program will be continued along with a new four-year program. Dr. Turner's principal aim is to adopt a special program with a good emotional environment to expand external and internal values for the student. Our trend is to journey from stereotyped programs to those which will arouse curiosity to help the girl make judgements when she leaves Virginia Intermont. Other goals he hopes to achieve are an inventive inquiry to challenge the student and a valid preparation for life in the working world or home. Together, the Administration, the Faculty, and the Student Body will strive to achieve these goals.

DR. FLOYD TURNER
President



MISS ANNETTE FREEMAN

Oh, VIC
We came to thee
With dreams and hopes
Of things to be
Through your open door
We found the light
Of truth and right
A new world
A world of friends and work and play and God.
(Tune to "Romeo and Juliet")

VIC's directed me
to live a life that's full and free
Within her tiny boundaries
we've come to know ourselves
To share a tear or share a smile
These are the things that are worthwhile
New hopes that burn within us all
We give our thanks to thee.
(Tune to "Both Sides Now")

VIC is resting
deep within the lap of God
Songs from every mountain
Seem to say which path to plod.
(Tune to "Love Can Make You Happy")

Upon this hill we stand so tall
Our pride is felt by one and all.
And when we go
Our hearts will yearn for days gone by
That can't return for a warmth that's felt
In every smile
Oh VIC
We praise thee
To you we give our youth and loyalty
To you we give our youth and loyalty
(Tune to "Romeo and Juliet")

FRESHMAN PROCLAMATION SONG

This our VIC to us will always be
Love and friendship given with sincerity
As the days go by we'll make new friends to keep
Creating us as one sharing our thoughts so deep
Time and time again our memories linger here
Dreaming dreams together with each passing year
Sister will remain until eternity
Our eyes look up to thee.
(Tune of "He")

Truth and loyalty has brought us where we are
We are as one
Giving us the knowledge to go on in life
A life we've just begun
Striving for the peace which is our only key
For liberty
Eternally
You are the light, VIC.
(Tune of "I Believe)

EDITOR'S NOTE . . .

Every editor must at some time sit in repose and write her last words to the student body regarding her finished product. "Creative turmoil" would be the most descriptive statement I could make about the 1970 INTERMONT. We have tried in the preceding pages to follow this year of transition for Virginia Intermont College, from its present standing as a junior college to the four year program. Not only have we captured in pictures those memorable occasions, but also the people of Virginia Intermont, who are really the publishers of this book.

Technically speaking, our format, photography and design reflect a contemporary mode. And for that reason we have selected a theme of "Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow" as a basis for our work.

Naturally there are numerous people who have helped me—my staff, photographers, and the INTERMONT advisor, H. B. Brady. They knew the panic of a pressing deadline, they felt the heartaches and disappointments, but they pursued their jobs to the end. And, I hope they feel the satisfaction that I do; for this emotion is the only reward for a task that at times seemed futile. I am greatly in debt for words of gratification to them.

There are others, too, who indirectly involved themselves with this publication. To my roommate Carol, and also my parents I want to say thank you for your patience and understanding that helped an often dubious editor reach her final goal.

As I write final "30" to this book, may I wish you the best that life can offer.

Sincerely,

Sharon Emanuel
